TRAINING

Programme : Equality and Diversity Update Training

With an opportunity to review ideas from more basic courses, we offer a day of reflective review of policy and practice, refreshing knowledge and understanding of equality and diversity legislation and changes in practice. With a view to embed ideas, specific to their own organisations, delegates review the effectiveness of their new policy documents with respect to current practice and produce action plans for further development.

- Refresh your knowledge of equality and diversity legislation
- Identify practice change resulting from previous training
- Share successful strategies that have had a positive impact on practice
- Take the opportunity to reflect on changes to professional attitudes and behaviour towards others
- Update and improve the effectiveness of your policies
- Produce changes that are sustainable

Main Topics

Review definitions and legislation
Share practice change
Re-assess consequent outcomes
Review practice and policy cycle
Redefine Action Plan
