Programme : Inclusive Practice

All mainstream practice needs to change in order to ensure equality of opportunity for all. Understanding inclusive practice is fundamental to the good practice within any organisation. Furthermore, inclusive practice is a right to which we are all entitled, and one that providers have a responsibility to make happen.

- Discover ways to extend your welcome to the wider community
- Explore the core values of inclusion
- Understand the language and behaviour that supports inclusive practice
- Work with tools for better dialogue
- Take the opportunity to reflect on language, attitudes and behaviour
- Find strategies that develop capacity and resilience
- Create an inclusion policy based on government guidelines
- Plan achievable next steps for positive change
