Programme : Legislative aspects of Childcare

At the heart of all recent legislation, is an imperative to tackle the inequality of opportunity in our organisations. The aim is for a more personalised and flexible service for all children. This session gives a step-by-step tour of these important and compulsory legislations and leads to a secure understanding of the roots of all equality policies and procedures.

- Be more confident in your practice
- Understand the core values behind the legislation
- Apply your understanding of the ECM and SEN code of practice to your practice
- Understand the meaning of 'reasonable adjustments'
- Review and improve your equality policies

Main Topics

The Disability Discrimination Act
The SEN Code of Practice
Every Child Matters
The Children's Strategy
The Good Childhood Inquiry
Policy and procedure
